

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE CHAIR

Dear Friends,

In the current political environment, there seems to be quite an urgency by liberal supporters to erase, revise, and topple the reminders of our history. Their efforts consist of mob rule and a disregard for the rule of law.

Feeding into the historically false narrative that 'only people of one party wish to fight against racial injustice in our country' ensures these problems will never be solved without creating other injustices. Yet maybe this is the objective of those who profit from the continued violence, destruction, and finger-pointing. What is it they do not want you to see?

Looking back at some of the relative histories, a pattern emerges. What started the Civil War? Who started the KKK? Who opposed the 13th Amendment abolishing slavery? Who opposed the 14th Amendment to the US Constitution granting citizenship and equal civil and legal rights to blacks? Who opposed the 15th Amendment to the US Constitution granting black men the right to vote? Who also opposed granting women the right to vote? Democrats.

For 120 years after the Civil War, Democrats gerrymandered voting districts to keep African Americans (and the Republicans for whom they voted) in the minority. Jim Crow laws in the South provided a systematic legal basis for segregating and discriminating against Black Americans for generations.

The Civil Rights Act of 1957 was signed into law by Republican President Dwight D. Eisenhower. This bill was greatly watered down by the Democratic Chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee, creating the need for another Civil Rights Act. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 was supported by the Republican Party and fought by the Democrats. The 1964 bill faced a marathon 54-day long filibuster by a Democratic bloc from the South. Committee Democrats in Congress and the Senate attempted to block the 1965 Voting Rights Act.

U.S. Senator Joe Biden(D) authored the 1994 crime bill which has been so hard on minorities and resulted in the coining of the term "mass incarceration." Senator Biden also referred to Barack Obama as being, "...the first mainstream African-American who is articulate and bright and clean and a nice-looking guy." This historically inaccurate and offensive comment put Biden into 'explaining and apologizing' mode for weeks afterward. More recently, Presidential candidate Joe Biden told an African American radio host that anyone struggling to decide whether to support him or President Donald Trump in the general election "ain't black."

President Donald Trump has implemented various reforms long ignored by previous administrations. These reforms include permanent funding of historically black colleges, encouraging passage of long-awaited criminal justice reform, which will aid in stopping mass incarcerations, and pre-COVID-19 job creation, which resulted in the lowest unemployment rate ever recorded for Black Americans.

To those who want to destroy America: our Republic is worth protecting and preserving. We are stronger together when we follow the rule of law, listen to each other, and work together to solve our problems. As one nation we overcame slavery and Jim Crow laws. This is what has always made America great and will continue to keep our country great.

To Victory,

Cynthia Cole
Chair, King County Republican Party
