

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE CHAIR

Dear Friends,

During the past month, we successfully completed the remaining 12 King County Legislative District Caucuses as online meetings. Everyone who attended had a chance to practice using technology that brought us all together while having a bit of fun.

Meanwhile, I have been connecting with potential candidates who wish to run for various offices this year. It is a great time to run as a Republican in our state. We can do better for businesses and their employees than the current administration in Olympia. If you are interested in running, please contact me. Candidate filing week is May 11 – 15. This is also when PCOs file for their next two-year term.

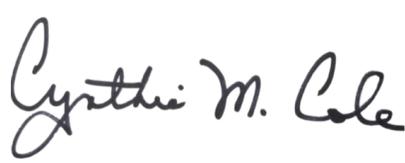

If you want to read about what the Republicans in the State Legislature have proposed to get people back to work, please go to the "Legislative Republicans' Safe Economic Restart Plan."

One bright light was Representative Vicki Kraft out of the 17th Legislative District. When private construction businesses could not get anyone to take their concerns seriously, I contacted Rep. Kraft. She played a role in helping them get back to work. Rep. Kraft was then the first person I turned to when some of our people who own catering and event planning businesses had questions about how to navigate through some timing issues with the PPP. Again, Representative Kraft listened to their concerns and helped them find ways to work the issue. She brought them some hope.

The other activity at KCGOP is signature gathering for R-90 and I-1698. The purpose of R-90 is to repeal Comprehensive Sexuality Education (ESSB 5395). The signature sheets are due back to Parents for Safe Schools by June 6th. For I-1698, The Heartbeat Initiative, signatures are due to Carolyn Crain by July 1st. Please contact KCGOP for more information on either.

In honor of Memorial Day, I will leave you with a quote from Sgt Major Bill Paxton, "May we never forget our fallen comrades, freedom isn't free." May we all find ways to honor our nation's heroes on this special day.

To Victory,

Cynthia Cole
Chair, King County Republican Party

The Shutdown Continues

Governor Inslee has extended Washington's shut down until at least next month. We are currently in phase one of the re-opening plan.

The Governor's office has supposedly been working for several weeks on a plan, yet has still not released guidance for many businesses that should be opening. On top of this, the committees he is creating to end this crisis seem to be overloaded with left-wing socialists, with very few, if any, conservative-minded people having any say in the process. When does this end?

In Case you Missed It: R-90

Governor Inslee has signed into law the K-12 Comprehensive Sexual Health Education Bill.

Parents across Washington showed up in opposition to this bill, yet Inslee decided that his party's agenda was more important than the voices of parents and families across Washington.

R-90 is currently gathering signatures! To request a signature page, go to THIS link and fill out the form to receive one in the mail.

In Case you Missed it: I-1698:

An initiative to prohibit abortion once a heartbeat is detected has been filed. If enough signatures are gathered, it would be on the November 2020 ballot.
